What if you could influence traveler behavior?

Tripkicks shifts traveler decisions so that they align with the priorities of your travel program and your company.

What's the best option for me?

What do I need to know for my trip?

How can I influence traveler decisions?

How can I achieve my ESG goals?

How does travel support our corporate initiatives?

How can we maximize the value of a trip?

Make an impact

The little decisions that business travelers make have a big impact towards achieving your company's goals. Tripkicks can help move the needle and make an impact.

Aligned with your program priorities and company initiatives

Diversity, equity, and inclusion

Prioritize suppliers and businesses that support your DEI initiatives, like minority-owned restaurants.

Sustainability and green initiatives

Encourage travelers to choose options that are more eco-friendly and support sustainability goals.

Traveler wellbeing and experience

Empower travelers with the tools they need to stay well and accomplish the goals of their trip.

Travel policy and company priorities

Influence traveler behavior to align with corporate initiatives and the goals of your travel program.

Tripkicks Insights Banner

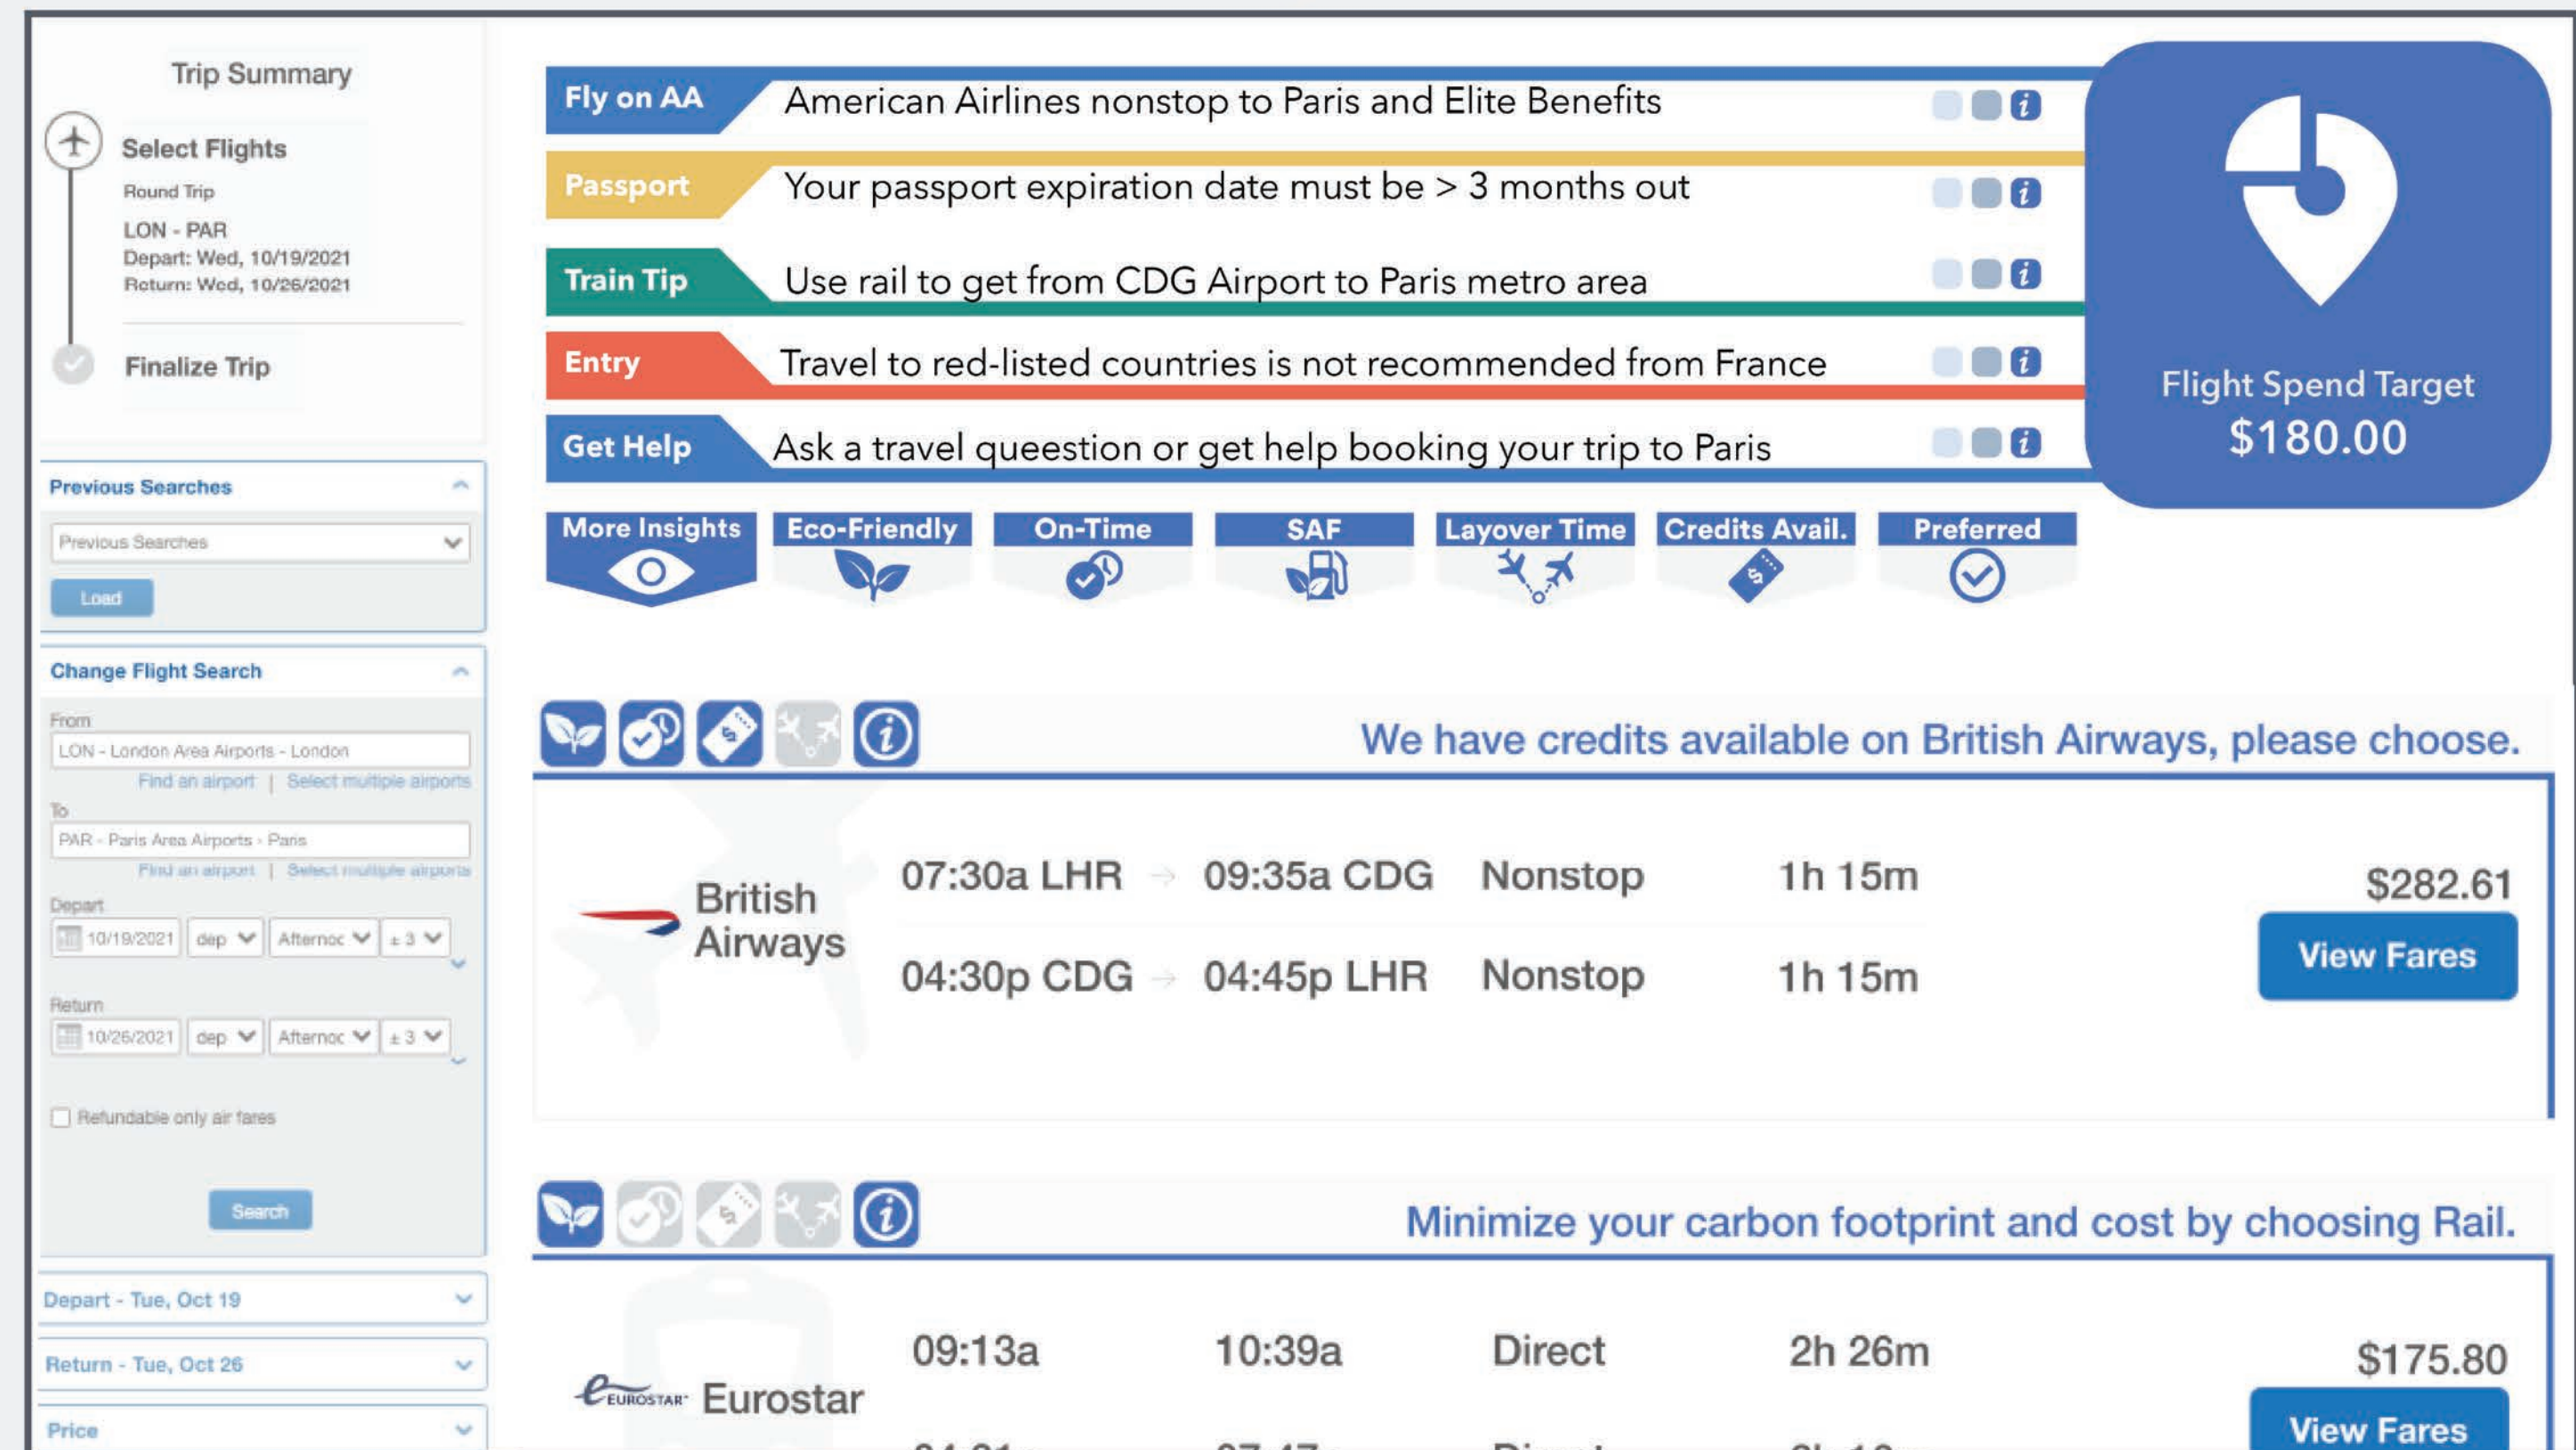

Displayed at the top of Concur Travel's search results, travelers see a prioritized list of the most important information for their trip. Customize the banner with search-specific content.

Dynamic Spend Targets

Displayed at the top within the Tripkicks Insights Banner, Spend Targets show travelers appropriate spend amounts for flights and for lodging.

Supplier Attributes

Displayed next to each flight and lodging option, simple icons and tips accentuate options that support program initiatives or feature unique offerings and amenities for the traveler.

Tripkicks Insights Banner

Tripkicks Insights banner sits at the top of the search results within Concur Travel, and displays all the most important insights that travelers need to know.

We partner with leading data providers to automatically present critical insights like entry restrictions, visa requirements, or anything else that could impact the trip.

Insights are color-coded, and sorted based upon priority. You can also add custom insights and tips to display on all flight and all hotel searches, or to display on specific origin and destination pairs.
